Peggy Maguire established a new high island-wide score mark for the women Saturday night as she ruled a 249 in her second game, starting with eight strikes for the Kooty Pine Lanes circuit.

The 249 was the highest score in the 2-1 win over the Staten Island Fiddle Works team in the Kooty Pine Lanes Mixed Quarters League.

Mia Maguire, who finished up with a 300 series (175-249-270), showed the former island-wide standard of 218, posted by Betty Barbour in the Kooty Pine Lanes, a week ago last Thursday, by a single pin.

Peggy's 249 was also a new high series mark for a 1-2 win again on Wednesday night, when she met the Kancanians 149 by 21 pins while the 249 score earned the old mark for the league, Dotie Trevelyan's 225, by 24 pins.

Ray Hoffman rolled a 218 and Lou Glick a 212 in the latter circuit.

George Gonsky had a 212 in the latter circuit.
