Volunteer of the Year

Ken Soto, the 2024 Staten Island USBC Volunteer of the Year, embodies the spirit of community and generosity. Guided by the "golden rule," Ken's mantra has always been to treat everyone as he would like to be treated. This principle drives him to assist anyone in need, stepping in without hesitation to offer his help.

Since 1997, Ken has been a dedicated officer of the Friday Night Mixed Quartets at Rab's. His commitment extends beyond this role; while his children were involved in bowling, Ken was a constant presence at youth tournaments and supported the St. Peters Boys High School Bowling Team during his son's tenure there.

Ken's dedication to the Staten Island USBC is unparalleled. As a key volunteer of the Tournament Committee, he is known for his willingness to take on any task, ensuring the smooth running of the events and always going above and beyond in his volunteer efforts. Ken has also been recognized as League Officer of the Year, a testament to his exceptional leadership and dedication.

League Officers of the Year

Dennis Costantino is being honored as one of the League Officers of the Year, recognized alongside his counterpart, Vicky Fischetti, for his outstanding leadership as President of the Golden Oldies League at Rab's. Since 2016, Dennis has been instrumental in growing and organizing the league, ensuring that seniors have a well-structured and enjoyable environment for social recreation. The Golden Oldies League bowls year-round, with fall and summer seasons, and Dennis is always enthusiastic about recruiting new members to join.

In addition to his dedication to the Golden Oldies League, Dennis volunteers his time coaching youth bowlers several times a week. His commitment to nurturing young talent is evident in his role as the coach of the Notre Dame Academy High School Bowling Team, a position he has held since 2016.

Vicky Fischetti is being honored as one of the League Officers of the Year for her exceptional dedication and leadership. For the past 26 years, Vicky has been the driving force behind Rab's Family Fun League. She started bowling in the league with her husband Robert and daughters Tina and Toni-Ann in the early 1990s, quickly becoming an officer and holding every position within the league. Vicky has been instrumental in ensuring the league runs smoothly, fostering a welcoming environment that encourages families to return year after year.

Vicky is also a passionate advocate for youth bowlers, consistently supporting and promoting their involvement in the sport. Her contributions extend beyond the Family Fun League, as she has served on the Staten Island WBA and USBC Board of Directors, actively participating in various committees and tasks. In the past five years, Vicky has taken on administrative roles with the Golden Oldies League, where she serves as Treasurer, further showcasing her commitment to bowling.

Rocco Rago is being honored as one of the League Officers of the Year for his dedicated service to the Montalbano's Men's League at Showplace Entertainment Center. Rocco's passion for bowling began in his teenage years, inspired by his avid bowler parents. In the early 1990s, he was invited to take over a friend's spot on a team in the Monday Night Men's League, a commitment he has maintained for 30 years.

For the past 20 years, Rocco has served as the league's Secretary/Treasurer, playing a crucial role in its continuity and growth. His leadership was pivotal during the league's transition to Showplace Entertainment Center after Bowling on the Green closed in 2004. Rocco's unwavering dedication and effective management have ensured the league's success.

Hall-of-Fame Class of 2024 Meritorious Service

Rosemary Quattrocchi is being honored with induction into the Staten Island USBC Hall of Fame, the association's highest honor, for Meritorious Service, a recognition well-deserved for her remarkable contributions to the Staten Island bowling community. Known affectionately as "Roe," her name has been synonymous with Staten Island bowling for over 50 years. Roe began her bowling journey in 1961 at New Dorp High School and developed a lifelong passion for the sport, continuing to bowl to this day in the Rab's Girls League.

As she deepened her involvement in bowling, Roe took on various administrative roles. She has served on the Board of Directors for the Staten Island WBA and USBC since 2000, contributing to numerous committees and holding positions such as SIWBA Secretary and Sergeant-at-Arms for the SIUSBC. In addition, Roe has served in every capacity within many leagues, including President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Statistician.

Beyond her extensive service, Roe is also a decorated bowler, having earned several Staten Island WBA and USBC Women's Championships Titles throughout her career. Her participation in numerous leagues and tournaments has cemented her status as a respected and accomplished figure in the bowling community.
